

Should you Say this to parents? Completely Acceptable, If Agreed with the Team Leader, Never

1. Your tummy is looking big... are you having another baby?	2. Shachar has been very aggressive all day today, I think something is wrong	3. Lenny never bites, she is a good girl
4. She is my favourite, I love her SO much!	5. I don't really know, I wasn't with him much today	6. (a new staff member) I already know about his food issues, and problems with eating
7. She is one of the cleverest in the group	8. I think it was a mistake to move to Lions – she should have stayed in Zebras	9. He is one of the oldest, so a lot of what we do in this room isn't challenging enough for him
10. We would like to share some developmental concerns with you...	11. I don't deal with complaints – speak to Emma if you are not happy	12. I'm not sure the answer to that question, let me check for you
13. Barak really enjoyed the cutting today, he is still working on developing his scissor grip	14. Nico really can't share, and always grabs toys from other children	15. There is nothing we can do about biting – it happens!
16. Tom is really aggressive since you had the baby, it's hard for us	17. Maybe you need to consider some clearer boundaries at home also	18. He is not a baby anymore, its time Berry stops using the blanket
19. I think you 'baby' him too much at home, and this is why he finds it so difficult in the mornings	20. You never follow our rules, and this is what causes the problems	21. Pushing and biting other children isn't funny. It is important that we address this seriously
22. He is really advanced for his age	23. He has found it difficult since Lisa left, because he really loved her	24. I agree, the staff changes are difficult for him
25. Maybe he is regressing since you had the new baby, you should put him back in nappies	26. You have taken off the nappy too early, she's not ready, and its causing issues at gan.	27. Please bring more spare clothes each day, there are no usually enough in his bag
28. Ziv is very aggressive, he bites everyone (to grandma at pick up)	29. I think that Joni is too aggressive for his age, and this could be a sign of a development problem	30. Millie shit herself twice today, one time was very runny and it went everywhere

31. David has been very naughty recently, he doesn't listen to teachers, and does silly things all the time, like stuffing toilet paper down the sink	32. They are a bad influence on each other, we need to split them up I think	33. This is the third time I have asked you for nappies. If you don't bring nappies tomorrow we can't let Romy stay with us.
34. Before we start, I just want to say how much I love Ariel, he is soooo cute!	35. You have the best looking kids, and they are always so well dressed!	36. Sometimes he doesn't like to play with the other children, and sometimes he does
37. He eats dirt all the time! You should talk to him about this at home	38. She is normal is all development	39. In relation to creative development, he is meeting his expected milestones. For example, he really enjoys to...
40. Zoe is her best friend, they always want to be together	41. Adam particularly enjoys playing with Daniel, and sometimes needs encouragement to choose other friends to play with	42. We have noticed that Eli is over-reliant on adults to support with self-help skills like putting on his own shoes, or drying his hands. You could work on this at home also by encouraging him to be more independent
43. Daniel eats a very limited range of food at gan. What are his eating habits at home?	44. Zohar finds it difficult to wait her turn, sometimes she speaks over other children during circle time. We are supporting her to listen as well as speak.	45. When he throws a tantrum we find its best to ignore him. At Rainbow we don't reward attention seeking behaviour
46. We have to send him to the rest basket to calm down sometimes	47. Alfi needs to stand up for herself more, she cries too easily when other children do things she doesn't like	48. We are supporting Alfi to work on her assertiveness skills, and to use her words more, rather than reverting to crying to express her needs
49. Eithan's grandpa was extremely rude to us yesterday. He told me that "I work for him, and he pays my salary". It made me feel quite uncomfortable	50. I saw you sent a Whatsapp message this morning but I haven't had time to respond, it didn't look important, can we talk now?	51. We were short staffed today so it was a bit hectic...
52. I have no idea where her shoes are if they are not in the shoe pockets! Sorry!	53. Emma is off sick because she is pregnant, so I think there is no one really in charge until she's back. Call Sammy if it is important	54. Even though I am her keywork Julie doesn't really like me, so I tend to stand back and let other Victoria help her more
55. Andi knows all his letters, and I think he will be ready very soon! Next year in Elephants will sort that!	56. Andi is able to discriminate letter sounds very well, and can match the sounds to the letters. This is an important skill in learning to read	57. I have no idea why, but he always pushes Joseph
58. I think Monika was in charge today because Emma is off. Do you want me to ask her to call you?	59. Millie had two toileting accidents today, and both were Kakis. The second one was very loose	60. I am working on building a closer relationship with Julie because I am her keyworker, although she has shown a preference for Victoria.
