

Coming in Quiz | November 2019

		True / False
1	Parent meetings provide an opportunity for parents to give feedback on the gan and share their ideas about their child's development
2	Staff should call the parents by their name during the parents meeting
3	Parent meetings take place so you can share your opinions with the parents
4	Parent meetings must last for 30 minutes.
5.	What can you do to stop parents forgetting about their meeting appointment?
6.	What should you NOT do during a parent meeting?
7.	What do you need to prepare for a parent meeting?

		True / False
8	If a child has lice, all other parents should be informed, and the child should be sent home until they are lice free. Staff should check every child
9	If a child is sick, they should rest (in a basket) until their parents come to collect them
10	After a child is sick, they can return to gan if the doctors says its ok
11	Children can always attend gan if they have been on prescribed medication for more than 24 hours
12	At drop off a parent tells you that his child was bitten by bugs all over his hands yesterday at gan, and he is not happy. What do you do?
13.	What can you do to protect yourself from infection whilst working at the gan?
14	When a child is off sick, or returns – what questions should you ask the parent?
15.	Nappy changing time is excellent for noticing if a child is unwell in someway. What might you notice?	